Suspect Arrested Following Assault Report, Vehicle Pursuit

LEONARDTOWN, MD (January 30, 2025) – Patrol deputies from the St. Mary's County Sheriff's Office responded to a reported assault in progress at a residence in the 21000 block of Liberty Street on Wednesday, January 29, 2025.

While enroute, officers were advised that the suspect was leaving the residence in a vehicle. Responding deputies located the vehicle and attempted a traffic stop. The suspect refused to stop, and a pursuit ensued. The suspect stopped in the roadway at one point, then reversed, intentionally striking an occupied marked Patrol vehicle. The suspect then continued to attempt to flee, nearly striking another deputy. The suspect drove off the roadway without regard for public safety while attempting to elude.

The vehicle was immobilized near Three Notch Road and Valley Drive in Lexington Park. The suspect was taken into custody without further incident, and no injuries were reported.

The suspect, identified as Sabrina Brianna Thompson, 26, of Lexington Park, was arrested and transported to the St. Mary's County Detention and Rehabilitation Center in Leonardtown. Thompson was charged with two counts of second-degree assault, two counts of second-degree assault on a law enforcement officer, and malicious destruction of property. She was also cited for multiple traffic violations.

Further investigation revealed that Thompson had violated an out-of-state protective order and was charged accordingly.
